

Parents and Adult Leaders,

I want to begin posting photographs of troop events on the Troop 215 website. Please list the names of all members of your family below and indicate by checking the appropriate box whether or not you grant permission to use photographs of your family members on the troop website. The troop website policy is on the back of this form. Please return the form to me. If you have any questions please contact me at 412-835-3428 or htpayseure@verizon.org.

Henry Payseure, Troop Webmaster

Permission to use photographs on Troop 215 Web Site

I hereby assign and grant to the Boy Scouts of America Troop 215 the right and permission to publish photographs of the individuals named below by the Boy Scouts of America Troop 215 on the Troop Web Site, and I hereby release the Boy Scouts of America and Troop 215 from any and all liability from such use and publication.

Please do not publish photographs of the individuals named below on the Troop 215 Web Site.

Troop 215 Web Site Policy

The Troop 215 Web sites is hosted off-site and is not connected in any way to any BSA internal network. Troop 215 has direct control over the content of the site. The content of the Troop 215 site is appropriate to the Scouting movement. The Troop 215 site does not contain links to any sites that contain material that is not appropriate to the Scouting movement. The Troop 215 site does not contain any advertisements or commercial endorsements. The Troop 215 site does not engage in the electronic sale of any merchandise or products. The Troop 215 site does not replicate any BSA publication currently for sale through the Supply Division. The Troop 215 site abides by all laws regarding copyrights, trademarks, and other intellectual property, and by those pertaining to the Internet.

The Troop 215 site considers the safety and privacy of its members and participants by obtaining the necessary permissions to publish images of any individual. Names of Scouts will never be published on the site. In particular, names will never be associated with photographs. Contact information of Scouts will never be published on the web site, including names, addresses, phones numbers, and email addresses. Contact information of adults associated with the troop will not be published on the site, unless specifically approved by the Troop Committee and with permission granted by the individual.

Bulletin Boards, news groups, guest books, on-line forums, chat rooms or other types of "live conversation" technology will not be used on the Troop 215 site. The Troop 215 web site does not gather any personal information from site visitors. The Troop 215 web site is considered as a secondary, rather than preferred or exclusive, channel of communication with members and volunteers.
